

Player rolls the dice and moves forward to land on a shape. The player must state the shape or part of the shape in the image. If correct, the player can stay on the image. If the player's answer is incorrect, he/she must go back to the last image they were on.

START

FINISH

NOTE: Explain the mathematical term for the point where the lines of a corner meet is vertex.
If there are two or more corners, these points are called vertices.